Ravenor Primary School has been open to students since 2004. The school plays host to over 470 students from the local area. Kajima Community supports a plethora of activities throughout the evening, weekend and summer holidays. Some of the activities include language education, performing arts, martial arts, birthday parties, religious celebrations and even weddings.

We encourage local people to use their local facilities, we work with local groups, clubs, organisations and individuals to utilise these excellent facilities. The site is easily accessed by bus routes 282, E7, E9, 95, 105, E10

We can offer you a regular booking or a one off function and include a range of catering options.
